6.1 A general meeting may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called within 21 days of a written request from at least 10 members or 5% of the Members, whichever is the larger number (unless there are fewer than 10 members in which case whichever is the smaller number), in accordance with the Companies Acts to be held on a date not more than 28 days after the date of the notice.

6.2 General meetings are called on at least 14 clear days' written notice specifying the business to be discussed, and must include a statement provided by the members calling for the meeting, or shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting who hold at least 95% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Members.

6.3 The notice of a general meeting shall specify the place, the date and the time of the general meeting (and/or in the case of a fully or partly virtual meeting, arrangements for the virtual meeting), state the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting and state with reasonable prominence that a Member is entitled to appoint another person as their proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and vote instead of them. If the meeting is to be an AGM, the notice must say so.

- 6.5 Notice must be sent to:
- 6.5.1 the Charity's auditors (if any);
 - 6.5.2 the Members (including the Trustees).

For the purposes of this article 6 only, attendance by an authorised representative, by proxy or by suitable means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants constitutes attendance in person.

Quorum

- 6.8 There must be a quorum present before a general meeting starts to do business. There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of Members present in person (or in the case of fully or partly virtual meetings, by authorised representative, by proxy or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all the participants can communicate simultaneously) is:

- 6.13 No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies presently payable by that Member to the Charity have been paid.
- 6.14 A declaration by the person chairing the meeting that a resolution has been:
- 6.14.1 carried; or
 - 6.14.2 carried unanimously, or by a particular majority; or
 - 6.14.3 not carried; or
 - 6.14.4 not carried by a particular majority; and
 - 6.14.5 an entry to that effect in the minutes of the general meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against the resolution.
- 6.15 Subject to the Companies Acts, the proceedings at any general meeting or the passing of a written resolution shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including with regard to the giving of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting.
- 6.16 If any person wishes to object to the qualification of any vote, they must do so at the meeting at which the vote they object to is tendered. A vote which is not disallowed at the meeting will be deemed valid. The person chairing the meeting will be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at the meeting.

Proxies

- 6.17 The notice of appointment of a proxy (in such form as the Trustees may specify from time to time) must be received at the registered office of the Charity (or such other address specified by the Charity for that purpose) not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the proxy notice proposes to vote. - 6.20 A poll may be taken:
- 6.20.1 at the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - 6.20.2 at some other time and place specified by the person chairing the meeting; or
 - 6.20.3 through the use of postal or electronic communications.

Written resolutions

- 6.21 A written resolution signed by a majority of those entitled to vote at a general meeting (or, where the Companies Acts require, a greater majority) is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature required to reach the relevant majority.

- 6.22 The Charity must hold an AGM in every year. Not more than 15 months may elapse between successive AGMs.

Terms of office and retirement by rotation

- 7.7 Trustees shall be appointed for an initial term of three years.

- 7.8 A Trustee who has served their term must retire at the Trustees' meeting (if appointed by the Trustees) or general meeting (if appointed by the Members) nearest to the date on which their term of office expires (notwithstanding that the relevant Trustees' meeting or general meeting may precede the date on which their term of office expires).
- 7.9 Subject to article 7.10, a retiring Trustee who remains qualified may be reappointed for one further consecutive term of office. For the avoidance of doubt, a 'term' shall be three years.
- 7.10 The Trustees may, in circumstances which they consider to be exceptional, permit one or more of the Trustees to serve one or more additional consecutive terms of office, provided that any such further reappointment may only take effect with the consent of the Members (plus proxies) present at the AGM.

 - 7.11.7 cease to be a Member (but such a person may be reinstated by resolution passed by all the other Trustees on resuming Membership of the Charity before the next AGM); or 7.11.8 are removed by an ordinary resolution approved by at least 50% of the Members present and voting (including proxies) at any General meeting (but only if at least six Trustees will remain in office) after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views. If the Members pass a resolution in accordance with this article, the Trustee concerned shall be removed as a Trustee from the date of the resolution.

For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document.

- 8.11 In the case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

- 8.14 Subject to article 8.15, all decisions of the Trustees shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any decision of a Trustee:
